We have added an additional income streams to the site.

-- PyraBang --

This is kind of like Digg, Mixx or StumbleUpon, except that you get a cut of a post's popularity.

You also earn from downline upgrades.

The site is free to join and use, but like others, you get more benefits from the Gold Membership for just $5.95 per month

I have tested it out and it is doing what it says.

Please log into <http://www.theincometeam.com> and check your Upline Affiliate Links section on the left to get your URL to join (or check out) these programs.

As always, all programs are optional. If you choose not to join, your downline will see the next person's URL who has joined in your upline.

To our collective success !
